

Healing Hope Counseling Center, LLC

Financial Agreement

I understand that Fees are due and payable at the time of each appointment.

Healing Hope charges $125 for each intake assessment.

Healing Hope charges $110 for each counseling session.

Healing Hope providers are happy to file with your insurance carrier and is contracted with many. We have agreed to take the contracted amount with the insurer. The client will be responsible to pay at the time of service toward any deductible not met and any copay that is required by insurance carrier. Please call your insurance carrier for mental health benefit to find out what your particular benefit is. We will accept cash, credit card, and personal check. Any returned personal check will have a $20 fee.

There are other services for a fee as well, such as, letter writing, disability paperwork, and court appearance. Please check with your therapist to see what that fee is. We try very hard to get out clients scheduled in a timely manner. We hope you make it a priority to keep your appointment. There will be a $35 No Show fee for any appointment missed with no call or text. We ask that you text at least 24 hours in advance if a cancel is necessary. A FU appointment will not be scheduled until the No Show fee is paid. You will get a reminder text of your scheduled appointments.
